

Justin Mason BSc (Hons) FRICS MAE

Director, Mason Valuation Consultants

Justin is a specialist prime residential valuer in central London and affluent areas beyond with focus on the valuation of homes and investments between £3M and £50M for acquisition, wealth planning, taxation, restructuring and recovery, and litigation. Being regularly asked to act in relation to matrimonial, contentious trust and probate, professional negligence and a broad range of litigation matters, Justin has presented evidence and undergone cross-examination up to High Court level.

Having qualified as a member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors in 1997 and as a fellow in 2021, Justin manages a busy RICS Regulated firm and also served as a surveyor member of the RICS Regulatory Tribunal, an independent judicial body for the profession that protects the public and upholds standards. His entry to property began in 1989 and his career includes a broad foundation of residential and commercial experience, and over a decade with Knight Frank as a senior member of their residential valuation team and a founder of their litigation offering before starting his own specialist and truly independent firm in 2018.
